

BITTING BROS.

Quality Rising; Prices Falling.
It is only fair that when quality goes up that prices should go up with it. This however, happens to be the season of the year when the unexpected is liable to occur. Perhaps that doesn't explain just why quality is rising and prices are falling, but it is a fact just the same and the fact is all you care about. We are giving away nothing—it hasn't come to that yet, but if the drop in prices doesn't stop very soon, buyers will scarcely have to take along their pocketbooks when they go on purchasing expeditions. This is the chance of chances, don't take chances with it. Cheviot suits at $5 to $10 worth lots more money. New patterns in children's knee pants today. New goods coming in on every train. Headquarters for Grand Army Suits.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Heavy Closes weekly financial circular says:
"The stock market has had several influences to contend against which could not have been foreseen, viz: reports of damage to the corn crop, unfavorable rumors concerning the Reading deal, and further rumors of a strike among the miners of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. The important, but the time of year and our peculiar sensitiveness at seeing the precious metal flow to Europe, attach greater importance to these shipments than they would otherwise receive. Unquestionably there is a great deal of uneasiness concerning the future of our currency system both home and abroad, which this low level of gold stimulates. At the same time, there is more alarm than necessary in some quarters; and though the dangers are real, they are still quite distant. The very fact that they are better understood today than ever before is itself an omen of good.
Foreigners, who have been sending back their holdings of American securities for months past, have failed entirely in measuring the change of sentiment toward the United States. They fail to appreciate the power of the silver lobby at Washington. They have received its first rebuke in the form of a sharp decline in the value of their holdings. The difference between silverites and anti-silverites is likely to be in favor of the latter. Unless all indications fail, the next congress will bring a more radical measure than the present one. It is this hope that the remedy will be applied before the crisis comes, that has kept the market steady to carry the burden, that has induced American bankers and capitalists to purchase and hold the securities which Europe has sold. The want of this confidence, as well as the unsatisfactory state of trade and finance abroad, which forced Europe to sell.

The above is the end of the bears to force out of the market by means of false rumors about the corn crop were not very successful. All speculation was checked by the government report for August which showed the condition of corn to be 82.5 per cent, against 85 per cent the previous month.
